

Asking for permission and help

Look below, and ask your classmates for permission or for help by using the following indirect question structures: “Could you...?”, and “Is it OK if...?” Write down the names of the people you talked to in the “Classmates” column, and their answers. Be creative when answering your classmates’ questions...the answers don’t have to be real!!

Could you...?, Is it ok if...?	Classmates’ answers	Classmates
1. Tell me the time.
2. Give me some money.
3. Help me solve this problem.
4. I borrow your book.
5. Give me your phone number.
6. To smoke here
7. To sit here.
8. Shut the window.
9. Open the door.
10. Tell me your family name.		